

In 2011, you made a difference with Blue Sky.

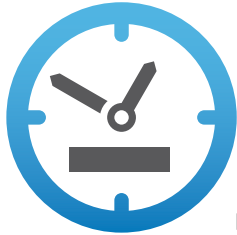

80,394

Total customers participating in Blue Sky as of Dec. 31, 2011

16,201

Customers who enrolled in 2011

606,183,714

Kilowatt-hours of western region renewable energy supported through the voluntary efforts of Blue Sky customers

Equivalent environmental benefits associated with all 2011 Blue Sky purchases :

363,219

Tons of CO₂ avoided

=

63,021

Cars off the road

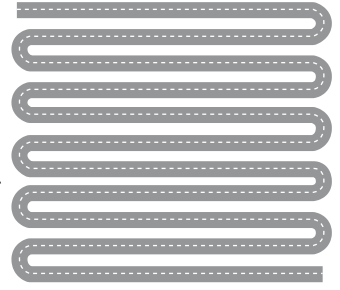

OR

8,539,637

Trees planted

OR

738,606,615

Miles not driven

2,401

Number of non-residential customers participating in the Blue Sky program

450

Non-residential customers enrolled in 2011

92

Customers enrolled in the Blue Sky business partnership program

34

Community-based renewable energy projects that received help from Blue Sky customers were completed in 2011. These projects are located in the following communities:

- | | | | |
|---------------|----|--------------|----|
| BEND | OR | INDEPENDENCE | OR |
| CORVALLIS | OR | MYRTLE POINT | OR |
| CRESCENT CITY | CA | PORTLAND | OR |
| GRANTS PASS | OR | ROSEBURG | OR |
| HOOD RIVER | OR | WALLA WALLA | WA |

124

Number of community-based renewable energy projects that have received Blue Sky funding

21

New community-based renewable energy projects are planned and getting help from Blue Sky customers. New installations are planned in Corvallis, Enterprise, Pendleton, Portland, Roseburg, Medford and Walla Walla.

4

Native fish habitat restoration projects received Blue Sky funding in 2011: Central Oregon, Mid-Willamette Valley, John Day Basin and the Rogue Basin.

17

Miles of habitat to be restored

Let's turn the answers on.