Oregon's Clean Energy Future

How do you envision a clean energy future?

Oregon's Clean Energy Future

In 2021, Oregon Governor Brown signed House Bill (HB) 2021 into law, which provides an emissions-based clean energy framework for electricity providers to develop Clean Energy Plans (CEP). The plan requires retail electricity providers to reduce greenhouse gas emissions associated with electricity sold to Oregon consumers.

PacifiCorp will file first Oregon Clean Energy Plan in 2023.

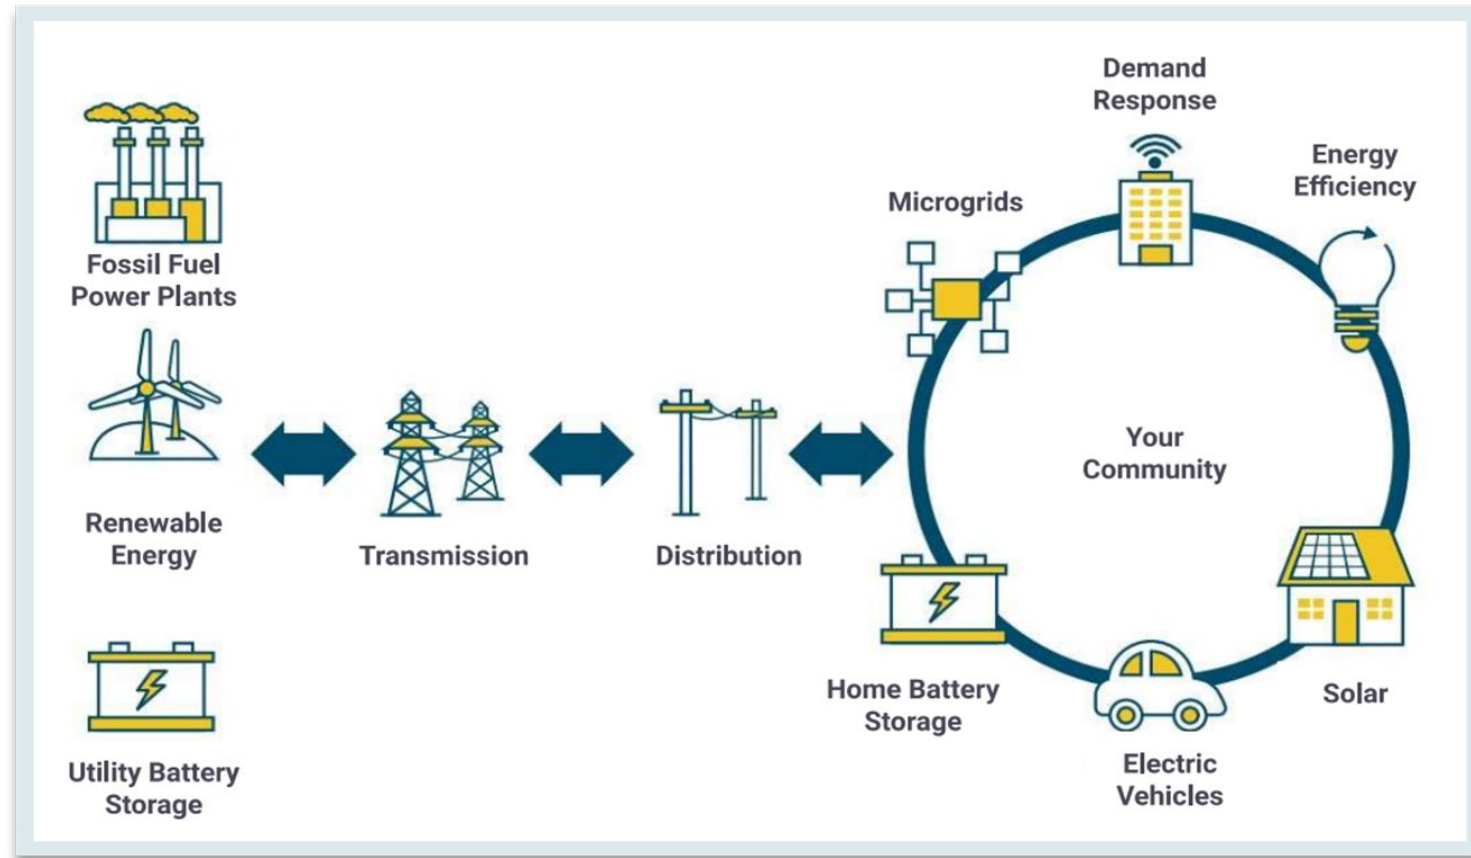

Clean Energy Plan Engagement

Diving into the details and intersectionality of clean energy planning with topics including:

- Clean Energy Plan
- Community Based Renewable Energy (CBRE)
- Community Benefits + Impacts Advisory Group (CBIAG)
- Distribution System Planning (DSP)
- Integrated Resource Plan (IRP)
- Resiliency
- Tribal Nations Engagement

Adaptation + Change

The basis of the Clean Energy Plan is Integrated Resource Planning, which addresses and optimizes the entire system shown above
